

Pete Westerman Bio

Peter Westerman, M.Div., is the Assistant Camp Director at Northern Frontier and a graduate of Moody Theological Seminary in Chicago. With a passion for mentoring young people and a gift for storytelling, Peter brings big ideas—like truth and faith—to life in ways that are fun and relatable for kids. Whether leading outdoor adventures or writing thought-provoking reflections on his blog, Westerman.blog, Peter invites others to explore faith and the journey of following Christ. At the Contend Conference, he's excited to guide kids on an unforgettable adventure as they become Truth Explorers!
