Topic: "Come, Lord Jesus"

Text: Revelation 22:6-21

1. Opening Discussion: This about the Christmas present image. If you were given a magical box that could read your heart and give you your greatest desire ... what would be in your box?
2. Read the entirety of Revelation 22:6-21. After you have read the passage, summarize the section. What keys themes of Revelation are repeated? What applications jumped out to you?
3. What three diagnostic tools does John offer to help us love Jesus more?
4. What does it mean to you to expectantly pray for Jesus' return, and how can you incorporate that into your life?
5. In what ways can you prepare for Jesus' presence in your daily life?
6. Jesus declares that He is coming soon with His reward for each person according to what they have done. What does this tell us about the importance of our actions and faithfulness in the Christian walk?
7. How do you respond to the idea that Jesus, as the Alpha and the Omega, is both the beginning and the end of our faith? What does that mean for your understanding of salvation?
8. The Spirit and the bride invite those who are thirsty to come and take the free gift of the water of life. What does this invitation mean for those who have yet to come to faith, and for those who have already received salvation?
9. What does "thirsting" represent spiritually, and how can we, as the Church, extend this invitation to others?
