Text: 2 Tim 4:6-22

Sermon Title: “You Pass the Faith by Finishing Well.”

1. What does it practically mean for you to view your life as “being poured out” for Christ right now?
2. When you think about “finishing well,” what fears or challenges come to mind personally?
3. Paul says, “I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith.” What habits help believers endure over the long haul?
4. What are some modern-day examples of loving “this present world” like Demas?
5. How does actively loving Christ’s appearing reshape daily priorities, suffering, and temptation?
6. What competing loves most threaten faithful endurance today?
7. How should Christians respond when other believers disappoint, wound, or abandon them?
8. What does Paul’s restoration of Mark teach us about grace, reconciliation, and usefulness in ministry?
9. Who are you currently helping pass the faith to (children, disciples, friends, church members)?
10. If your life ended soon, what spiritual legacy would you most want to leave behind?
